

Murder by Duel:

The Historian as Expert Witness

Hear the well-known historian Bertram Wyatt-Brown speak about his role in a recent West Virginia murder trial

Open to the Public

Prof Stephens' Forging an American Nation Class
Thur., April 23, 8:00-9:15 am Old Colony, rm 101

1849

Sec. 3686. Fighting a duel, or sending a any person fight a duel with any deadly weapon, to or send or deliver to another a challenge, or messenger challenge, oral or written, to fight a duel, though no be confined in jail not more than one year, and be fi one thousand dollars

Sponsored by the Eastern Nazarene College History Department