

RELIGION & AMERICAN CULTURE

A SEMINAR IN AMERICAN HISTORY (HI399)

Examines the beliefs and practices of the major religious traditions and movements in American history—from 19th-century Lakota spiritualism to 20th-century Catholic devotion; from Muslims in contemporary America to covenant-making early American Puritans. Films, novels, lectures, discussion, scholarly works, and music will give students a window into the rich religious life of the nation.
